The Routledge Handbook of Museums, Media and Communication

Edited by Kirsten Drotner, University of Southern Denmark, Denmark, Vince Dziekan, Monash University, Australia, Ross Parry, University of Leicester, UK, and Kim Christian Schrøder, Roskilde University, Denmark

Series: Routledge International Handbooks

The Routledge Handbook of Museums, Media and Communication explores what it means to take mediated communication as a key concept for museum studies and as a sensitizing lens for media-related museum practice on the ground. Including contributions from experts around the world, this original and innovative Handbook shares a nuanced and precise understanding of media, media concepts and media terminology, rehearsing new locations for writing on museum media and giving voice to new subject alignments. As a whole, the volume breaks new ground by reframing mediated museum communication as a resource for an inclusive understanding of current museum developments.
